WHOLE BODY SEEMED IN ONE AWFUL PAIN

Morse, La.—Mrs. L. P. Lambert, who has been a popular school-teacher here for several years, recently told a visitor of her interesting experiences with Cardui.

"Just before my . . . came on," said Mrs. Lambert, "I would ache all over. My feet, my toes, my arms, hands, head—my whole body seemed to be in one awful pain. I would grow so nervous that I could not hold a cup in my hand. My husband would have to hold my coffee for me to drink. Last fall I was in such a bad condition that I had to spend about three days in bed every month. It seemed to me that I was on my last go-round."

Then one day, said Mrs. Lambert, she happened to read about Cardui and the experiences of some women who had been helped by it. "I felt that Cardui might help me if I tried it," she continued, "for I had been suffering with similar troubles to those mentioned there. I had heard of Cardui all my life and I knew many women who said they had been helped by it. The very next day I began to take it.

"Very soon after, I began to notice my improvement. I kept on till I felt like a different woman. I gained in weight from 98 pounds to 115 and felt better than I had in years. I took six bottles right along and found it a splendid tonic. My suffering was partly due to a run-down condition and the Cardui stimulated my appetite and helped me to gain the strength I needed. . . . I take a bottle every now and then, even now, just as a tonic to keep up my strength, but I am in better health than I have been in for years."

SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Lynchburg—The directors of the State Chamber of Commerce held an all-day meeting here March 24.

* * *

Luray—The Luray High School is instituting a system of military drill into the school for the purpose of bettering the conditions of the pupils on the school. The training will be in charge of the local post of the American Legion, which has volunteered to give certain hours a day to this work.

* * *

Waynesboro.—The industrial life of this city is gradually on the upward trend. The selection of Waynesboro as a site for a unit of the Stehli Silk Mills Corporation of New York, giving employment to between 125 and 150 persons, means a decrease in unemployment.

* * *

Blacksburg.—A coffin, containing human bones, presumably those of an American Indian, was discovered by workmen here while excavating for the Virginia Polytechnic Institute war memorial gymnasium. The memorial site is in the famous Draper Meadows, near the scene of an Indian massacre.

* * *

Staunton.—It was announced here, that Rev. William A. Sunday, nationally known evangelist, will not conduct a six-weeks' campaign in Staunton this spring. Harold C. Gibson, president of the local Billy Sunday Campaign Committee, said that no tentative date for holding the evangelistic campaign had been set.

* * *

Lynchburg. — Thirty-five teams, headed by four ministers representing the Christian, Brethren, Methodist and Baptist Churches, made a religious survey of West Lynchburg, information for which will be used by the churches in a united personal evangelistic campaign to begin here April 1.

* * *

Fredericksburg. — Henry Dennehi is the first candidate to announce himself for the police justice of this city at the election to be held in November, following the announcement of Justice Willis that he would seek election to the legislature. He has been active in public life for many years, having served for several terms in the City Council, being president of that body at the time.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Rev. J. L. Harly, of Bridgewater, conducted the funeral service for John H. Simmers, Confederate veteran and former overseer of the poor for twenty years and superintendent of the Ottobine Farmers and Mt. Bethel United Brethren Sunday schools for forty-four years, who died at his home near Franklin School. He would have been 86 years old on April 5.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Alonzo C. Profit, 67, for forty years an engineer on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, was killed in a derailment of Train No. 205, eastbound on the Lexington branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio between Buena Vista and Lexington. His body was brought to his home here for interment. Fireman R. L. Painter, of Balcony Falls was slightly injured. The cause of the derailment has not been ascertained yet.

* * *

Covington.—Following the discovery of the body of an aged unidentified man, apparently 45 years old, in a freshly made grave, ten inches below ground, near the scene of the capture of a still, alleged to have been operated by three young white men, Rodney Hope, Hubert Hope and Lester Wagner, are in Covington Jail, while county and Federal officers are conducting their search for the body of another man, whose clothing and watch were found in the vicinity.

* * *

Richmond.—"Thorncliff," the home of Joseph R. Anderson, near Lee, in Goochland county, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin. The contents of the house, embracing antique furniture which had been in the possession of the Anderson family for several generations and priceless old family portraits, plate, rare old china and glassware and bric-a-brac, were saved when convicts from the State Farm, which adjoins the Anderson estate, were rushed to the scene and succeeded in saving virtually everything of value except the personal belongings of Calvert Anderson, a son of the owner.

* * *

Luray.—Thirty excursions have been scheduled, and dates fixed for their operation to the Luray caverns already, and several other dates are to be set for the operation of excursions by the several railroads which each year bring thousands of visitors to the caverns. The excursions scheduled already are by the Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and Reading, the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Jersey Central. These excursions are operated from New York and Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh and other points.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Robert G. Wright, 56, of Vienna, near Washington, a witness in the United States District Court here, was unable to appear on account of a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered while eating breakfast at Stoneleigh Inn.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Raiding a secluded spot on the Coleman tract in Spotsylvania county, early Saturday, officers located a 150-gallon copper still, 1,000 gallons of mash and considerable tools, equipment and paraphernalia, in connection with the manufacture of whisky. One man, John Walker, colored, was arrested.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Preliminary plans for the organization of a historical society were taken at a meeting of a number of those interested in the subject at a meeting held here. The meeting arranged by a member of those who are keenly appreciative of the community's duty in collecting, codifying and preserving historical data, documents and relics, was presided over by Dr. J. N. Barney.

* * *

Winchester.—Only two cases of contagious diseases have been discovered here since early last fall, according to a report on health department work compiled by Inspector J. W. Bokand. Heretofore the average has been around five per month. The report also showed the local drinking water supply to be free from bacilli, according to analysis made by the State chemist.

* * *

Staunton.—The 159 miles of dirt road and paved highways between Danville and Staunton can easily be traveled in less than six hours, and the motorist keep within the State road speed of thirty miles an hour. This was demonstrated when H. M. Henkle, of the Danville Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by his wife, made the run between the two cities and made observations en route in five hours and thirty-six minutes.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Apropos a report that he might be induced to become a candidate this year for the Democratic nomination for Attorney-General of the State, Colonel Aubrey E. Strode here said he was not interested in the office in the slightest and that he is too engrossed in his private law practice to give it consideration. This disposes of talk in Richmond that friends were urging him to become a candidate in the primary.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—A dinner conference of Rockingham and Harrisonburg business men will be held here for the purpose of raising funds to help finance the Shenandoah National Park for the Blue Ridge area. Similar conferences will be held in all counties of the Valley, following the agreement last week with the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, by which the Shenandoah Valley, Inc., is to raise the funds for the park campaign.

* * *

Culpeper.—Unity is the key word which in the future, if achieved, will place Virginia in her rightful place of leadership among the States of the Union, Major LeRoy Hodges, managing director of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, told members of the Culpeper Chamber of Commerce here at the annual banquet of the organization. J. L. Fray, president of the chamber, was a director in the Virginia chamber, presided at the meeting.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Mrs. Mary Smith, candy factory worker, was shot and instantly killed by Amherst county, her 11-year-old son, Elmo, whom she had gone to visit. The boy was showing his mother how he would do if burglars attacked the home in which he was living. A little later he picked up a double barreled shotgun and almost blew her head off, the gun being discharged accidentally.

* * *

Warrenton.—At a recent meeting of the Upperville Colt and Horse Club, June 18 and 19 were decided upon as the date for the annual Colt and Horse Show. The following officers were elected for 1925: President, W. G. Fletcher; first vice-president, General James A. Buchanan; second vice-president, Waugh Glascock; secretary, R. S. Peach; manager, H. R. Chamblin; treasurer, I. A. Long. This show was founded in 1853 and is the oldest horse show in the United States.

* * *

Staunton.—Albert J. Reinhart, 24, of Boston, Mass., entered a plea of guilty in Corporation Court and was sentenced to two years in the Virginia State Penitentiary. He was indicted March 6 on a charge of forgery. Reinhart has been in jail here for two months, since he was arrested in Charleston, W. Va. At the time of his arrest authorities in North Carolina and Massachusetts desired to lay their hands on the man. Staunton refused to acquiesce and he was held here to stand trial.

* * *

University.—"Fayerwather Hall" is the new name for the old Fayerweather Gymnasium which has outlived its usefulness as the center of athletics at the University of Virginia and has been adapted to the uses of the McKinney School of Fine Arts. The acquisition of Fayerwather Hall marks a turning point in the development of the teaching of fine arts at the University of Virginia. Founded less than ten years ago by the gift of Paul Goodloe McIntire, the school has now passed definitely out of an experimental stage.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Evening School, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(©, 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for March 29

CLOSING PERIOD OF CHRIST'S MINISTRY—REVIEW

DEVOTIONAL READING—Rev. 1:9-18.

GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today and forever.—Heb. 13:8.

PRIMARY TOPIC — How Friends Cared for Jesus and Paul.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Helping the Ministries by Our Gifts.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Lessons from the Closing Ministry.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Closing Scenes in Christ's Life.

The lessons of the quarter have been so rich and full that perhaps the best method of review will be to summarize the outstanding teachings of the quarter. The following suggestions are offered:

Lesson I—The so-called triumphal entry was the official presentation of Jesus of Nazareth to the Jewish nation as their Messiah. He was the predicted king coming in the name of the Lord (Psa. 118:26).

Lesson II—Coming judgment is also surely certain. The judgment portrayed in this lesson is that of the nations living on the earth when Jesus comes. The judgment pronounced—reward or doom—will be on the ground of the attitude of the nations toward Jesus as expressed in their treatment of His brethren, the Jews.

Lesson III—Before Jesus went to the cross He instituted a memorial of His broken body and shed blood, which should be gratefully and strictly observed by believers until Christ come again.

Lesson IV—Many are the trials through which the believer must pass as he goes through this life. The sure cure for "heart trouble" is the assurance that Jesus has gone to prepare a place in His Father's house, and will come again and receive His disciples to Himself.

Lesson V—Jesus is the true vine and believers are the branches. Abiding in Him will result in fruitfulness, success in prayer, fellowship in the love-life of God, fullness of joy and love-life like that of God.

Lesson VI—It is not the purpose of God that Christians should be taken out of the world at once when they believe on Christ because the world needs their influence and testimony. Christ needs them as His representatives and they need the trials of the world to strengthen the grace of God in their hearts. Those whom God has given to Christ are eternally secure even though they must pass through many trials.

Lesson VII—The agony of Gethsemane was due to the fact that Jesus was bearing the burden of the sins of the world.

Lesson VIII—The heart of this lesson is that Christians should be obedient to civil authority because human government has been ordained of God. The more they believe it is Jesus Christ, the more loyal he will be to rightly constituted authority (This lesson has no logical connection with the others of the quarter and should be omitted where time is limited).

Lesson IX—Jesus Christ gave clear proof that He was the Messiah promised in the Scriptures, but the wicked nation rejected Him and chose a murderer instead. Both Pilate and the nation cut deep into the guilt of the rejection of Christ.

Lesson X—Christ on the cross is the supreme expression of unselfish love, a revelation of the moral nature of the world, and stands as an exhibition of the cross-centered life of the world in any one nation.

Lesson XI—Christ's resurrection is an absolute certainty. This unquestioned fact certifies that He is the divine Son through whom we get eternal life.

Lesson XII—The various appearances of Jesus Christ after His burial in Corporation Court and was sentenced to two years in the Virginia State Penitentiary. He was indicted March 6 on a charge of forgery. Reinhart has been in jail here for two months, since he was arrested in Charleston, W. Va. At the time of his arrest authorities in North Carolina and Massachusetts desired to lay their hands on the man. Staunton refused to acquiesce and he was held here to stand trial.

Blackberries in America

Some variety or other of blackberry is cultivated in every part of the United States except in southern Florida, part of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and sections of the western states where hot, dry winds destroy the ripening fruits.

"The loveliest, daintiest flower that 'tis ours
To have sweet converse
At dewy morn or ev'ning's close
Is rarest perfume from it flows
Like Strange, wild rose
But when the rain drops on it beat
Ah then it's odors grow more sweet
About my feet
Oftimes with loving tenderness
Its soft green leaves I gently press
In sweet caress
A million more wondrous fragrance blooms
The more my fingers firmly close
And grab the rose!"

Dear Lord oh let my life be so
Its perfumes when the vein pass blow

VERA

"Snow on the mountain" greeted our eyes Sunday morning.

One of the mildest and most seasonable Marches is about to leave us, according to tradition, as a roaring lion.

A great deal of farm work has been done, and as a general thing farmers are "up with their work" and are only waiting for warm weather to come, that they may start planting.

Wild flowers are dotted all through the woods; and all nature is putting forth leaves and blossoms; the cold snap has given the fruit lovers a scare, we trust though that Jack Frost hasn't eaten it all.

Mrs. Will Akers and little daughter, and Mrs. Charles Wallace and two children of Gladstone, have been visiting their father, Mr. A. Nutty combe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Childers issued invitations to the 20th anniversary of their marriage, which occurred on Saturday the 28th. Quite a number of their friends responded and a pleasant evening was spent. Placing the slogan on Lady Washington's feet afforded a great deal of amusement. J. S. Kinney succeeded in getting the slipper in the right place and won the prize of a box of candy—Miss Clyde Childers won the "Booby prize"—a chocolate pig". Fruit, punch, and cake were served. They received quite a number of pretty and useful presents. The hours were from 7:30 to 11 p. m. On their departure the guests were unanimous in voting it a very pleasant evening.

The play "The Path Across The Hill", which was rendered at the Oakville Saturday evening, from all reports, was a "howling success", both artistically and financially. A large crowd was present, the door receipts alone amounting to more than $50 which will be used as a nucelus fund preparatory to founding a laboratory at the Oakville school. A very worthy cause and one that should be encouraged, the enterprising teachers of this school deserve a great deal of credit for the interest they are taking in the furtherance of education.

The Union Star, Brookneal, Va., in its editorial column says:

"Go where you may and you will find the professed followers of Christ involved in jealousies, backbitings, chicanery, dishonest dealings with each other, selfishness, hatreds, retaliations, backbiting, exploitation of their fellows, bitter intolerance, sectarian persecution of those who do not accept their particular variation of faith and creed, all of which are directly contrary to the Sermon on the Mount; contradictory to the Golden Rule; contrary to the great lesson expounded in the parable of The Good Samaritan; contradictory to the great fundamentals of all christian life and conduct laid down in the words of Christ himself." Still they profess to follow in His footsteps.

PAMPLIN

A group meeting at Matthews church was held Sunday p. m. The devotional exercise was held by H. T. Terry. His subject was "Success thru Service". The W. M. U. plan of work was presented by Mrs. L. N. Ligan, Mrs. Thos. J. Hix made an appeal for the Boy's Camp to be built at Va. Beach and an interesting talk and prayer was given by Mrs. Jack Marshall. A song by the young people led by Mrs. Wilson Hix was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. John Marshall made all visitors feel at home by her gracious words of welcome. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. H. T. Terry leader for group S. The leader urges that all reports be sent in to Mrs. J. H. McCue by April 15th. Fill out questionaire and return to Miss Blanche White, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Curtis Harvey entertained the Ernest Worker Society of Presbyterian church last Wednesday p. m. The attendance was unusually large. Mrs. E.N. Cunningham assisted Mrs. Harvey in serving delightful refreshments.

Mrs. Lillie Moses spent Saturday in Lynchburg.

Elston Couch was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Terry Sunday.

Prof. E. M. Terry of Lacrosse, visited home folks last week-end.

The beautiful home of S. P. Loving is almost completed. This is quite an addition to Church Street.

Dr. E. E. Walker was a visitor here last week. He has a host of friends here who will welcome his return at any time.

ROCKS NEWS

Miss Edith Martin, of Lynchburg, is visiting in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ranson and children and Mrs. D. W. Dinkins and children visited Mrs. S. M. Ranson.

Wylie Dickerson, Willie Hamilton and Robert Almond of Lynchburg visited home folk here Sunday.

The Billy Sunday Boys of Lynchburg held a very interesting meeting at Rocks church Sunday.

Misses Ethel Anderson and Cassie Baldwin celebrated their dirthdays at the home of Miss Anderson Saturday night. Those present were: Mary, Gertie, Claudy, Pearl, Alice, Lizzie, Bessie, Jessie and Agnes Ranson, Lucile Moses, Odelia and Nellie Dickerson, Lilly Harvey, Dorothy, Clara and Ressie Marsh, Alta Pugh, Edyth Martin, Sara Watts, Pattie Almond, Mesdames D. W. Dinkins and A. A. Baldwin, Misses Myrle Dinkins, Beatrice and Zella Inge, Palmer, Otis, Charlie, Jim, Harry, Frank, Emory, Wylie and Jim Frank Ranson, Claude Leffell, Claude, Elbert, Walker, James and Emmett Dinkins, A. A. Baldwin, James Taylor Vester, and Will Garrett, Wylie, Hutson, Frank and Clyde Dickerson, Robert Almond, John Paris, Robert and Witt Harvey, Tip and John Paulett, Howard Inge, Billy Ferguson, Dean Pugh, Walker Jennings, Clarence Simmons, Hubert Martin and Ernest Farrar. A few games were played, after which refreshments were served, consisting of candy, jelly, cake, pickle and grape juice. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

The men of this neighborhood expect to work the road from Rocks church to Mr. Garrett's this week.

Renan on Religion

Religions are false when they attempt to prove the infinite, to define it, to incarnate it (if I may so speak); but they are true when they affirm it. The greatest errors they import into that affirmation are nothing compared to the value of the truth which they proclaim.—Ernest Renan.
